

We are continually seeking non-perishable food items and monetary donations to help us provide much-needed food to local families and individuals who are experiencing food insecurity. If you would like more information on how to donate or volunteer for the pantry, please contact the church office.